

10 good reasons to vote for KrF

1. More time for families

Safe families lead to safe children. KrF promotes stronger and safer families who have time for each other. All children are unique and all families are different. KrF wants to give freedom of choice and more flexibility to families to organize their everyday life, with better financial support, good kindergartens and much more.

2. More teachers in schools

KrF wants a school that sees everyone. For this to happen, there should be more teachers in the classrooms and more people with diverse profession backgrounds in schools. School should be a knowledge arena, but also teach values that help students tackle life. KrF will continue the battle against bullying.

3. Human dignity through all phases of life

All people have equal worth, regardless of their characteristics or abilities. KrF will fight for human dignity in all phases of life, from conception to a natural death. No one should be sorted away because of their qualities! KrF says no to twin reduction abortion and yes to more help and support for those who have children with special needs. We say yes to pain free care in the final phase of life, and no to euthanasia.

4. On the side of those who need it most

No one should be left behind! KrF wants an inclusive labour market where everyone can apply their creativity and talents. We want to provide good treatment options for people suffering from substance abuse, especially those organized by the non-profit sector. KrF will fight human trafficking and modern slavery, and work against violence and abuse of children.

5. Vibrant local societies

KrF wants all regions of the country to take part! We want an agricultural policy that gives increased food production, improved income development for farmers and strengthened land protection. We need more broadband development, safer roads and better transport alternatives on rail, sea and other public transport. KrF wants alternatives that make it predictable and easier to start new businesses.

6. Compassion knows no borders

We should never only look inwards, we have a responsibility to help the world's poorest through foreign-aid, trade, investment and democracy support. We must ensure high quality in foreign assistance that goes towards education, health care and good governance.

7. Values that endure

We can't take our values for granted! KrF wants to preserve the values that Norway is built upon. We need to know where we come from to be secure when meeting new people and cultures. KrF wants a society where there is room for faith and spirituality. KrF builds its policies on the Christian view of mankind, compassion, and good stewardship. These are values that will endure.

8. Dignity for the elderly

The elderly are a great resource for society and should be able to live independent, active, safe lives and be able to stay healthy for as long as possible. When ever they need help, the elderly should be offered healthcare, suitable accommodation and additional assistance. You should be able to live a good and meaningful live with responsibility for yourself and your own health if you have the means to do so.

9. Offensive climate policy

Norway must take its responsibility to reduce climate change, both by cutting our emissions nationally and actively contributing internationally. We must protect vulnerable areas, and KrF says no to oil drilling in Lofoten, Vesterålen and Senja. We must speed up the transition to using new renewable energy sources.

10. Stop human trafficking

Modern slavery requires action. People in Norway are also subjected to forced labor, trafficking and prostitution. KrF wants help victims of trafficking through specialized police units, and preventative measures like increased knowledge and awareness.
